My Favorite Place

Our local real estate agents share the rooms, spaces and places they love.

Mary Miller loves her kitchen.

I guess you could say I'm a kitchen-body because this is my retreat - the place I go to for refreshment and sustenance, literally. When I'm whipping up a meal, I'm thinking about the people I'm cooking for and remembering how fortunate I am to be surrounded by them.

Putting together the kitchen of my dreams has taken place over time. When we moved in, it had a drop ceiling with one fluorescent light fixture and worn linoleum floors but we made it work until we had the time and vision to overhaul it. That was ten years ago. I'll never forget the first meal I made when it was brand new: mac and cheese. Nothing fancy, but it was homemade and my family loved it!

I like technology and entertainment and have one room where I've poured all my efforts: my den. Some might call it my man cave, but it's really a family place. It's outfitted with a great TV for viewing movies, a sound system and lights all programmed via my phone, and some memorabilia from my favorite teams. If I don't feel like watching anything, I can stream whatever music I want to hear.

Jeff Johnson loves his den.

I really love just hanging out here, either by myself or with my kids, watching a good baseball game. But when the mood strikes, my wife and I throw amazing parties that can flow out to the back patio.

Summer Issue: out June 18

School Issue: out August 13

Deadline: May 25.
